MSDW Global Bond Fund

as of September 30, 2005

Investment Philosophy

Obtain an attractive rate of return through investment in domestic, international and Euro market fixed income securities of investment grade quality. Will purchase government, agency, and corporate bonds of varying maturities in a variety of currencies. Selection of bonds is based on the real return after inflation. Considers the possible improvement in the market value of the bond based on possible changes in interest rates. The credit strength of the issuing entity is part of the decision.
